Fire Prevention Week October 6-12

The Library will be providing information on this year's Fire Prevention Week theme: "Smoke alarms: make them work for you!"™ The 2024 Fire Prevention Week theme "reinforces the critical importance of smoke alarms and what's needed to install, test, and maintain them properly." We will have a special storytime on fire safety and activity and coloring sheets available to help children understand the importance of preventing fires at home.

The Great Pumpkin Hunt October 1-31

It's time once again for the Great Pumpkin Hunt! During the month of October, Miss Helen will have pumpkins hidden OUTDOORS in the library garden for children to find. Check them off as you find them, and turn in your sheet at the downstairs desk to receive a small prize.

Creepy Classic Movie: The Ghost and Mrs. Muir Thursday, October 24, 5:00-6:45

 Columbus Public Library

Join us in the lower level of the library for a screening of this classic ghost story. "The Ghost and Mrs. Muir" is a 1947 American supernatural romantic fantasy film starring Gene Tierney, George Sanders, Rex Harrison, and a very young Natalie Wood. It was directed by Hollywood legend Joseph L. Mankiewicz, and is based upon the novel of the same name by R. A. Dick. Popcorn and sweetly spooky vibes will be provided!

Teen Afternoon: Spooky Movie Monday, October 14, 3:30 - 5:00pm Grades 6-12

It's time for another afternoon at the movies for teens! A selection of spooky Halloween movies will be provided on the day for the teens to choose from: movies will be rated PG or PG-13. Popcorn and candy will be provided. Feel free to bring a stuffy or a blanket.
Registration requested, please visit columbuspubliclibrary.info

STEAM: States of Matter with Butter Wednesday, October 23, 3:30 - 4:30pm

 Columbus Public Library

Join us for a special children's program on the states of matter! Julie Bacon of Royal Guernsey Creamery will walk us through how liquid becomes a solid through the medium of dairy.

Library Play Day Friday, October 11, 1:30-3:30pm

Families are welcome for an afternoon of play at the library! Join us for puzzles and games in the lower level of the library. Drop in and join in the fun! Sign up at columbuspubliclibrary.info
